The City of Chula Vista

Founded in 1911, Chula Vista is a beautiful coast community with a population of over 217,500 located seven miles south of downtown San Diego. In Chula Vista, you will find the best California has to offer, including a great year-round climate with smog-free air; two marinas with easy access to San Diego Bay for sailing, windsurfing, water skiing, and other water sports; nearby beaches and beautiful foothills and back country with bass fishing in Otay Lake; and opportunities for horseback riding, hiking, and camping.

The City of Chula Vista has 40 parks, three regulation golf courses, two municipal swimming pools, 61 tennis courts, and four community centers. There is a fine school system. Excellent shopping facilities and modern housing are available throughout the City. Chula Vista will continue to develop as a community with plans on the drawing board for 20,000 additional homes over the next 20 years and exciting plans for the development of the Bayfront. Chula Vista is also the home to the Olympic Training Center. Located in one of the most beautiful areas of the nation, Chula Vista offers an excellent place to live and work.

The Police Department

The Chula Vista Police Department's 252 sworn and 113 civilian employees are divided into the Patrol Operations; Investigations; Administrative Services; and Fiscal Operations/Research Divisions, which are supervised by three Captains and an Administrative Services Manager. The Police Department's philosophy encompasses solid labor-management relationship with the community for which it serves. Over the last eight years, the department has celebrated an over 90% approval rating from Chula Vista citizens.

In March 2004, the department opened a new, state-of-the-art 150,000 sq. ft. police facility. This new $63 million facility provides the men and women of the Chula Vista Police Department the tools and space to work effectively as the City grows. This new facility also features a Type I Holding Facility that contains 47 beds to temporarily house prisoners awaiting arraignment. This is the only Type I facility in San Diego County.

With its fiscal year 2006-2007 budget of approximately $50.9 million, the department has the primary responsibility for crime prevention; protection of life and property; apprehension of offenders; investigation of crimes and incidents; enforcement of laws and regulations; and the provision of a variety of services. Specialty units in the department include Research and Development, Technology Unit, Crime Laboratory, state-of-the-art 911 Dispatch Center, Narcotics Enforcement Team, Traffic and DUI Enforcement Unit, School Resource Officers, Gang Suppression Team, Motor Officers, Street Team, K-9 units, a Riot Control squad, Crisis/Hostage Negotiation Team and SWAT.
