

Understanding your CCA bill

Below are summarized sections of your Community Choice Aggregation (CCA) bill. Details about your energy use such as when and how your home uses energy are available in My Account, SDG&E's online energy management tool. To get started, you just need your account number. Visit sdge.com/MyAccount.

- 1 Your SDG&E Bill Account Number
You will need this information whenever you contact your CCA.
- 2 Total Amount Due
includes all your current and past due charges, including charges from your CCA.
- 3 Electric Delivery is the total charges billed for electric delivery in this billing period.
- 4 CCA Electric Generation is the total electric generation charges provided by your CCA during this billing period.
- 5 Your CCA provider and contact information.
- 6 Regulatory Notice provides various information including the Competition Transition Charge (CTC). Through this charge, SDG&E recovers costs for power plants and long-term power contracts approved by state regulators that have been made uneconomic by the shift to competition. You will find a CTC line item in the Breakdown of Current Charges on your bill.
