Vote Mike Diaz

I was born in Mexico, went to Castle Park High School, married my high school sweetheart, became a U.S. citizen, and retired as a firefighter after 30 years of service, and then teacher at a local High School. I have been so blessed to live the American dream.

You elected me to city council in 2016 because city hall paid more attention to Eastlake and Otay Ranch. They forgot about us in Southwest Chula Vista. I have fought to get us the attention we deserve by:

Protecting our community in closing down 16 illegal pot shops.

Increasing traffic enforcement to slow down speeders in our neighborhoods.

Repaving over 40 streets, adding 12,000 feet of new sidewalks and starting to build two new fire stations in Southwest.

Worked with city staff to remove graffiti and working on building an emergency homeless shelter.

Bringing 7,000 good paying jobs to build the Chula Vista Bayfront.

I have built a strong coalition to support West Chula Vista with endorsements from Councilmembers John McCann and Jill Galvez.

I have been honored to serve you and make things better in Southwest Chula Vista. I respectfully ask for you vote.

Sincerely,

Mike Diaz
