Steve Padilla: Building a safer, stronger Chula Vista

When coronavirus surged in South Bay, Councilmember Steve Padilla took swift action, guided by science, to protect public health and tackle the economic crisis.

Protecting Public Health... Steve Padilla worked with experts to expand testing and secured federal funding to keep our first responders safely equipped.

Emergency Economic Relief... Steve delivered disaster loans and cut red tape so local businesses could survive by safely serving customers outdoors.

Supporting Struggling Families... Steve stopped evictions and provided rent assistance to help Chula Vista families stay in their homes.

That's the leadership Steve Padilla has always delivered for Chula Vista.

A former police detective, Steve Padilla kept us safe. As Mayor, Steve added 8 new parks in East Chula Vista and ended the gridlock to bring jobs to Chula Vista's Bayfront.

Now, Steve's fighting for a fair economic recovery with the childcare, paid sick leave, and affordable housing working families need to thrive, not just survive.

Steve gets it. He's a father and small business owner who knows the struggles families face on healthcare, jobs and education.

We can count on Steve Padilla to lead Chula Vista through this crisis and rebuild – safer and stronger than before.

Steve Padilla is endorsed by Chula Vista Firefighters, Police Officers & Mayor Mary Salas.
